

NAP GLOBAL NETWORK AT COP 24

We'll be co-organizing or speaking at a number of events during COP 24 in Katowice. Representatives of the NAP Global Network Secretariat will be onsite for the duration of the COP. Reach out to info@napglobalnetwork.org if you would like to connect with us—we hope to see you there!

Alignment to Advance Climate-Resilient Development

When: Monday, December 3 | 12:00-13:15

Where: NDC Partnership Pavilion

Organizer: NAP Global Network Secretariat

Description: This session will explore ways to advance implementation of adaptation needs and goals by realizing linkages between the NAP process and Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs). It will highlight the outcomes of a recent assessment of 15 countries perspectives on alignment, focusing on linking NAPs and NDCs as a basis for broader alignment towards climate-resilient development. Food and refreshments will be served.

Climate resilient development: Comprehensive climate risk management strategies to secure livelihoods for all

When: Thursday, December 6, 12:00-13.30

Where: German Pavilion

Organizer: Germany's Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)

Description: Synergies between international agreements are key to secure livelihoods. Comprehensive climate risk management uses synergies and links climate resilience, adaptation and disaster preparedness.

Driving NDC Implementation - the Role of Global Initiatives and Networks

When: Friday, December 7, 12:00-13:30

Where: German Pavilion

Organizer: Germany's Federal Ministry of the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety (BMU)

Description: This side event brings together high-level political actors from national, multilateral and non-governmental institutions to examine current trends and emerging opportunities for financing and implementing increasingly ambitious NDCs. Key topics include governance, alignment, finance (including private sector), and transparency.

How can governments use national systems to respond to UNFCCC transparency and accountability demands?

When: Saturday, December 8, 11:30-13:00

Where: Development and Climate Days 2018, Hotel Diament Arsenal Palace

Session organizers: IIED, GIZ, ICCCAD

Description: This session will investigate how investing in existing M&E mechanisms can be a more efficient basis for understanding national progress towards adaptation and how drawing from existing country examples can help countries assess adaptation progress in M&E capacities, resources and understanding of robust methods to measure all dimensions of adaptation.

How can we develop new and support existing strategies for scaling up public and private sector financing for climate-smart development?

When: Saturday, December 8, 14:00-15:30

Where: Development and Climate Days 2018, Hotel Diament Arsenal Palace

Session organizers: IDRC, GRP, IIED

Progress and prospects: The implementation challenge of adaptation within the Paris Agreement

When: Monday, December 10, 11:30-13:00

Where: Narew

Organizer: GIZ / World Federation of Engineering Organizations event

Description: This side event looks at the status of the implementation of adaptation in the context of the Paris Agreement. By presenting promising country experiences and innovative tools, we will discuss new approaches how to further advance and meet the implementation challenge of adaptation successfully.

NAP Global Network at Gender Day

When: Tuesday, December 11, 12:00-18:00 (marketplace); 13:45-14:15 (debate)

Where: Climate Action Hub

Organizer: UN Climate Change Secretariat

Description: The NAP Global Network will be hosting a booth in the marketplace all day, and will also be hosting a lively debate on the challenges and opportunities related to integrating gender considerations in NAP processes, followed by an interactive discussion with the audience.

The Global Adaptation Goal and the Importance of Gender Transformative Resilience Finance

When: Tuesday, December 11, 16:45-18:15

Where: Bieszczady

Organizer: CARE International and the Centre for Science and Environment

Description: This side event will explore opportunities to scale-up efforts to close the global adaptation funding gap while helping women and girls devote more time to activities—such as education, paid work, political and public participation – that fulfill a range of development priorities. It will also provide an opportunity to share lessons from emerging partnerships, mechanisms and approaches for supporting women and their communities in the race for resilience.

Launch of Fiji's first National Adaptation Plan

When: Wednesday, December 12, 9:30-10:30

Where: Pacific & Koronivia Pavilion

Organizer: The Fijian Government

Description: With support from the NAP Global Network, the Fijian Government created their first NAP document to set out its long-term ambitions for building Fiji's resilience to climate change. The NAP provides a clear vision for adaptation and identifies priorities to be addressed in partnership with academic institutions, development partners, and private sector entities over the next five years, and beyond. Please join us in celebrating this achievement and learning more about this NAP document.

NAP Champions Event

When: Wednesday, December 12, 13:15-14:45

Where: Bieszczady Side Event Room 1, Area G

Organizer: The Least Developed Countries Expert Group (LEG)

Description: The NAP Champions designated by the UNFCCC Secretariat—namely, H.E. Loren Legarda, H.E. Ms. Fekitameloia Katoa'Utoikamanu, Professor Dr. Jae Chun Choe and Mr. Helmy Abouleish—promote good adaptation practice and support for adaptation through their respective discipline and sphere of work. They help broaden the scope of adaptation planning under NAPs to promote connectivity with the broader development context and thereby effectively contribute towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals. The NAP Global Network will be hosting a reception to follow this NAP Champions event.
