

MEDIA ADVISORY

Jamaica hosts global forum on climate change adaptation planning

The National Adaptation Plan (NAP) Global Network is meeting in Kingston, bringing together climate change adaptation experts from 11 countries.

What: Opening of the NAP Global Network's Targeted Topic Forum "Financing NAPs: Options for Implementation"

Who: Hon. Daryl Vaz
Minister without Portfolio in the Office of the Prime Minister, with responsibility for Land, Environment, Climate Change and Investment

Ms. Denise Herbol
Mission Director
U.S. Agency for International Development

When: Tuesday, March 15th at 9:00 a.m.

Where: Jamaica Pegasus Hotel, Kingston, Jamaica

Why: The Paris Agreement calls on all countries to make National Adaptation Plans (NAPs) a key part of the global response to climate change. The NAP Global Network fosters sustained peer-learning by connecting developing country representatives engaged in the NAP process, and helps coordinate bilateral donors' efforts to support climate change adaptation.

For more information, please contact:

Christian Ledwell

Media & Communications Officer, Resilience

International Institute for Sustainable Development

Email: [cl Ledwell@iisd.ca](mailto:cl Ledwell@iisd.ca)

Phone: +1 613 807 1154